

Childrens Department.

ELKHART, IND., Nov. 31st, 1894.

DEAR EVANGELIST:—I thought I would write for the EVANGELIST. I like to go to King's Children's meeting. We have some forty members here. Our instructor is Miss Mary Metzger; we like her very much. Bro. Menuagh is our pastor; we like him very much. We have preaching here every two weeks. I would like to hear from other King's Children societies.

IRVIN LANDIS.

NORTH GEORGETOWN, O., Nov. 29, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—As this is Thanksgiving I feel as though I ought to write my January letter. I thank the Lord that he has spared our lives to see this beautiful Thanksgiving day. I thank our good Lord that we were once more permitted to surround our table with a nice roasted turkey on it and a lot of other nice things. I wish you could have been with us to help eat it. And I think all the people ought to thank the good Lord for sparing their lives.

MAUD WHITELEATHER.

NORTH GEORGETOWN, O., Nov. 28, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have not written my January letter yet. I go to school. My teacher's name is Mary Yaggi; she is a good teacher. I also go to Sunday school. My Sunday school teacher's name is Ida Heastand; she is a good Sunday school teacher. We have no King's Children Society, but I hope there will some one come to organize; there has never been any one here to organize. I will ask a question: when did John the Baptist begin to preach? I will close for this time.

MAUD WHITELEATHER.

NORTH LIBERTY, OHIO, Nov. 29, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—As this is Thanksgiving eve, I will write another letter for the children's column. I was at my uncle's to-day and we had a lot of good things to eat. This is one thing we should be very thankful for. I would like to correct a mistake in my last letter: that quilt was worth eighty-eight dollars and fifty cents instead of eight dollars. I have but two more letters to write for the paper and then the year is up. I wonder if the rest of the children are as anxious to know what they are to get as I am. I will have to close for this time.

Yours respectfully,

LULU E. BEAL.

GOSHEN, IND., Nov. 30th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Brother Miller is holding a revival here. We all like him very much. He is an earnest worker for the cause of Christ. May the Lord bless him in all his efforts. We had a Thanksgiving service Thursday morning. Last Tuesday evening his text was, "What shall I do to be saved?" He told Peter how held a revival and there were three thousand converted in one day. He said he wondered how the world would be if we had such revivals. Pray for us that we may have success.

ELSIE SMITH.

PARKERSVILLE, Nov. 29th 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is Thanksgiving day. We had no school to day and we had no school all last week. Our teacher was attending the county institute. It is very cold to-day. I will answer Amy Worst's question: Elijah was taken to heaven in a chariot of fire; Clyde A. Moss's question: The man who was left down through the roof was a man with palsy; the man's name is not given. Mark ii and iii. I will ask a question: Who was the first woman preacher? Good-bye,

MAUD MILLER.

ANKNETTOWN, O., Nov. 30th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Please excuse me for not writing sooner, as I did not want to write until after Thanksgiving day, as I wanted to tell the little girls and boys I had the privilege of attending the wedding of my Sabbath school teacher, sister Verda Armstrong, and Mr. Gregg and also sister Viola Armstrong and Mr. Gault. This was something I never saw before, two couple married at the same time. We had a very nice time. We hope they may live long, happy and prosperous lives together. I must close for fear my letter is getting a little lengthy.

EDNA BEAL.

AKRON, IND., Nov. 30th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I want to correct a mistake in my last letter: in the seventh line the word house should be hour. Yesterday was Thanksgiving. I had a good time; two of my cousins were here. I hope that all my little EVANGELIST cousins felt that they had something to be thankful for. I will ask a question: What are the first five books of the Old Testament called? I will answer Grace Overcash's: Christ came into the world to save sinners.

DESSA SAYGER.

ELKHART, IND., Nov. 28th, 1894.

I was requested to write for the EVANGELIST; it is my first letter. I am only eight years old. I have two brothers and one sister, and my papa has been sick for a long time. I belong to the King's Children. We have a good society of fifty some members. I go to the Brethren Sabbath school. I like it very well. Mrs. Metzger is my teacher; we like her very much. As this is the day before Thanksgiving, I wish you a happy time. I go to school every day. We had Thanksgiving exercises at school this afternoon, and have two days vacation. I will close for this time.

From

MABEL YODER.

ELKHART, IND., Nov. 30th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I was requested to write a letter for the EVANGELIST. This is my first letter. I am eight years old, I go school every day. My teacher's name is Miss Sadie Bishop; I like her very much. I go to Sunday school every Sunday and also Young People's meeting which is held at four o'clock and Senior's at five. We are going to have a Christmas entertainment at the Brethren church. I have a piece to speak with sixteen verses in. My brother is the treasurer of the King's Children. I spent Thanksgiving away from home. We are going to have protracted meeting; a week from Sunday it begins. Mr. Menuagh is our pastor. I will answer Grace Overcash's question: Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I will ask a question: who was taken prisoner to Egypt? I will close for this time. Good-bye.

EDNA PANCOST,

1100 North St.
